Should any act or omission by the Customer, whether or not such act or omission was due to ignorance on the part of the Customer and whether or not such ignorance was reasonable or justified in the circumstances, prejudice the Company's right of recovery, then the Customer shall be deemed not to have complied with the provisions of Clauses 26.1 and 26.2.
27. PAYMENT BY THE CUSTOMER
27.1 Unless otherwise specifically agreed by the Company in writing the Customer shall pay to the Company in cash immediately upon presentation of account all sums due to the Company without deduction or set-off and payment shall not be withheld or deferred on account of any claim or counter-claim which the Customer may allege.
27.2 All and any monies received by the Company from the Customer shall be appropriated by the Company in its sole and absolute discretion in respect of any undisputed indebtedness owing by the Customer to the Company, notwithstanding that the Customer might, when making payment, seek to appropriate the payment so made to any particular debt or portion of a debt.
27.3 In the event that payment to the Company is effected electronically, the Customer bears the risk in respect of such payment until such time as the funds are received and cleared into the Company's bank account.
28. DEBITING FEES AND DISBURSEMENTS
The Company shall under no circumstances be precluded from raising a debit and obtaining payment in respect of any fee or disbursements due to it notwithstanding the fact that a previous debit or debits, whether excluding or partly excluding the items subsequently requiring to be charged or recovered, had been raised and whether or not any notice had been given that further debits were to follow.
29. RISK OF POSTED ITEMS
Notwithstanding any prior dealings between the Company and the Customer, all documents, cash, cheques, bank drafts or other remittances, sent to the Company through the post shall be deemed not to have been received by the Company unless and until they are actually so received.

30.2 Without in any way limiting the provisions of Clause 30.1 all quotations and agreements are subject to revision without notice having regard to changes in currency exchange rates and upward movements in amounts payable by or on behalf of or at the instance of the Company to third parties including, without limitation, freight, surcharges, insurance premiums, equipment rental and labour which charges and upward movements take place after quotation. Any increase or revision and any upward movements as aforesaid will be commensurate with the change in the currency exchange rate or the increase in such amounts payable. Any such increase shall, falling agreement between the parties, be determined by the then auditors of the Company or any other auditors nominated by the Company who in such determination shall act as experts and not as arbitrators and whose decision shall be final and binding on the parties.
31. NO CLAIMS AGAINST COMPANY DIRECTORS AND EMPLOYEES
The Customer undertakes that no claim shall be made against any director, servant or employee of the Company which imposes or attempts to impose upon him any liability in connection with the rendering of any services which are the subject of these trading terms and conditions and hereby waives all and any such claims.

The Customer's oral and written instructions to the Company shall be precise, clear and comprehensive, and in particular, but without limitation, shall cover any valuation or determination issued by customs in respect of any goods to be dealt with by or on behalf of or at the request of the Company. Instructions given by the Customer shall be recognised by the Company as valid only if timeously given specifically in relation to a particular matter in question. Oral instructions, standing or general instructions or instructions given late, even if received by the Company without comment, shall not in any way be binding upon the Company, but the Company may act thereupon in the exercise of its absolute discretion.
33. VARIATION OF THESE TRADING TERMS AND CONDITIONS
No variation or alteration of these trading terms and conditions shall be binding on the Company unless embodied in a written document signed by a duly authorised director of the Company. Any purported variation or alteration of these trading terms and conditions otherwise than as set out above shall be of no force or effect, whether such purported variation or alteration is written or oral, or takes place before or after the receipt of these trading terms and conditions by the Customer.

- 40.1.7 loss or non-delivery of any separate package forming part of a consignment or for loss from a package or an unpacked consignment or for damage or mis-delivery; and/or
- 40.1.8 damage or injury suffered by the Customer or any person whatsoever arising out of any cause whatsoever as a result of the Company's execution or attempted execution of its obligations to the Customer and/or the Customer's requirements or mandate;
- unless:
- a) such claim arises from a grossly negligent act or omission on the part of the Company or its servants; and
- b) such claim arises at a time when the goods in question are in the actual custody of the Company and under its actual control; and
- c) in the instance provided in Clause 40.1.7 above the Company receives a written notice within 5 (five) days after the end of the transit where the transit ends in the Republic of South Africa, or within 14 (fourteen) days after the end of the transit where the transit ends at any place outside the Republic of South Africa.
- 40.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these trading terms and conditions, the Company shall not be liable for any indirect and consequential loss arising from any act or omission or statement by the Company, its agents, servants or nominees, whether negligent or otherwise.
41. MONETARY LIMITATION OF LIABILITY OF THE COMPANY
- 41.1 In those cases where the Company is liable to the Customer in terms of Clause 40.1, in no such case whatsoever shall any liability of the Company, howsoever arising, exceed whichever is the least of the following respective amounts:
- 41.1.1 the value of the goods evidenced by the relevant documentation or declared by the Customer for customs purposes or for any purpose connected with their transportation;
- 41.1.2 the value of the goods declared for insurance purposes;
- 41.1.3 double the amount of the fees raised by the Company for its services in connection with the goods, but excluding any amounts payable to sub-contractors, agents and third parties.
- 41.2 If it is desired that the liability of the Company in those cases where it is liable to the Customer in terms of Clause 40.1 should not be governed by the limits referred to in Clause 41.1 written notice thereof must be received by the Company before any goods or documents are entrusted to, or delivered to, or into the control of the Company (or its agent or sub-contractor), together with a statement of the value of the goods. Upon receipt of such notice the Company may in the exercise of its absolute discretion agree in writing to its liability being increased to a maximum amount equivalent to the amount stated in the notice, in which case the Company will be entitled to effect special insurance to cover its maximum liability and the party giving the notice shall be deemed, by doing so, to have agreed and undertaken to pay to the Company the amount of the premium payable by the Company for such insurance. If the Company does not so agree the limits referred to in Clause 41.1 shall apply.
42. GENERAL AVERAGE

If the Company breaches any of these trading terms and conditions or any agreement between it and the Customer and fails to remedy such breach within thirty days of the date of receipt of written notice requiring it to do so then the Customer shall be entitled to compel performance by the Company of the obligations it has defaulted in, but shall not be entitled to cancel any agreement between the Customer and the Company.
44. WARRANTIES AND REPRESENTATIONS BY THE COMPANY
The Company makes no warranties and representations to the Customer save as may be specifically provided herein or as notified in writing by the Company to the Customer from time to time. The Customer acknowledges that the Company is not in any way bound by any oral statement, representation, guarantee, promise, undertaking, inducement or otherwise which may have been made at any time by any salesman, employee, representative or any person acting or purporting to act for and on behalf of the Company, whether negligently or otherwise, unless such statements, representations, guarantees, promises, undertakings, warranties or inducements are supplied or made in writing by an employee duly authorised by written resolution of the board of directors of the Company in response to a written enquiry specifying accurately and in complete detail what information is required.
45. DISPUTE
- 45.1 Should there be any dispute of any nature whatsoever between the parties in regard to any aspect, matter or thing relating to these trading terms and conditions and whether or not the Company has executed its obligations in terms of any agreement it has with the Customer, then and in such event the Customer shall nevertheless be obliged to perform its obligations in terms of any such agreement as though the Company had performed properly and to the Customer's satisfaction.
- 45.2 The Customer's remedy, having performed its obligations as provided in Clause 45.1, shall be limited to an action against the Company for repayment of either the whole or portion of the amount which the Customer alleges, constitutes an overpayment.

Until such payment is made, any rights that the Customer may have, shall be deemed not yet to have arisen, and it is only the payment to the Company which releases such rights and makes them available to the Customer in respect of any claim that the Customer may have against the Company.
- 45.4 In any dispute between the Company and the Customer the Company shall be deemed to have performed its obligations in a proper and workmanlike manner and strictly in accordance with any agreement between it and the Customer, until such time as the Customer proves the contrary.

- 48.2 If the Customer at any time, and from time to time, fails to make payment to the Company on the due date of payment of any amounts due by the Customer to the Company then,
